

RETAIL REQUIREMENT

Ben's Cookies

October 2011

Having acquired their eleventh store on the eastern section of Oxford Street, Ben's Cookies continue on a steady expansion programme and are seeking stores in affluent central and suburban London tourist / high footfall locations as well as other established tourist destinations throughout the UK.

PRIORITY LOCATIONS INCLUDE:-

LONDON

Coventry Street / Leicester Square
Westfield
Canary Wharf
London Bridge

Other high footfall locations such as the mainline stations are of interest.

OTHER

Cambridge Bicester Village

SIZE: 150 – 350 sq.ft.

Established in 1983 setting up shop in Oxford's Covered Market, Ben's Cookies now have 11 stores in the UK. Ben's Cookies aim to produce the finest cookies money can buy and have achieved "Cult Status" within their current markets.

All opportunities will be considered on their merits, with the focus on central / affluent suburban London sites including busy underground stations, mainline train stations and airports.
